Summary

Social media lead with 6 years in digital marketing and Web3 since 2022 (following crypto since 2017). I build social as a system, not just a feed: product, audience, content, distribution and analytics connected into one operating model, with teams of 5–10 people across regions. Led social for an ecosystem with 30M+ followers at Blum, where one educational post drove 300K+ wallet connections. AI-augmented and fact-checked workflows, calm under pressure, comfortable leading a team or owning channels hands-on. Looking for Head, Lead or Senior roles in social, content or Web3 marketing, open to product-marketing-adjacent work.

Experience

Global Head of Social Media – Dlicom

SocialFi on Base · Remote · Full-time · Jan 2026 – Present

- Built the social function from zero: SMM strategy, tone of voice, community management strategy, operating model, content calendar and analytics; moved the SMM workflow from ClickUp to Notion
- Own strategy and voice across 10 platforms (X, Telegram, Discord, Instagram, Facebook, LinkedIn, TikTok, YouTube, Binance Square, CoinMarketCap) and the founder's personal brand on X and LinkedIn
- Onboarded and manage the reply-marketing specialist; ran hiring for content contributors (40+ applicants); wrote the playbook for 6 regional X accounts and a multi-region localization framework (incl. China); oversaw the CMC/Binance Square agency at launch, then took both channels in-house
- Defined platform roles (X for reach and narrative, LinkedIn for trust and B2B, Telegram for retention and AMAs); cadence changes only on stable signals, not one-off spikes
- Weekly and monthly reporting, audience research and content audits feeding a quarterly implementation plan; metrics beyond vanity: reach quality, saves, clicks, follower quality, inbound
- Designed an AI-assisted content system (brand and tone rules, platform specs, quality checks) and a fact-checking routine: only verified numbers and product claims go public
- CoinMarketCap views per post ~1.3K to ~10K after a product-led rework (organic); +146% X impressions in month one with zero paid budget; +27% median reach per post spring to summer 2026; Telegram AMA +459 subscribers, average post views ~90 to ~600
